OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Aizawl, the 21st August, 2025

Subject: Claims of Daily Allowance to probationers on Training.

It has come to the attention of the Government that probationers of State Services undergoing training at various institutes have been claiming Daily Allowance during their stay at these training institutions.

As per Government of India Order (2)(ii) below SR 164 “Travelling Allowances as on tour may be allowed to probationers who are already in Government service or who first join their respective Department or State of allotment and then proceed to join the training institute, or where they move from one training institute to another. No Daily Allowance will, however, be admissible in any case for the period of their stay in the training institutes”. Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that no Daily Allowance shall be admissible to probationers for the period of their stay at training institutes under any circumstances.

Henceforth, All Administrative Heads and Heads of Departments shall ensure strict compliance with these provisions and take necessary steps to prevent submission or processing of such claims.
